

UNDERSTANDING THE ROLE OF THE MASCULINE AND FATHER ARCHETYPE IN SANDPLAY THERAPY:

Two essential concepts in Jungian Sandplay Therapy are the role of the Masculine and the Father archetype. Recognizing how these emerge in the healing of the individual's psyche will be explored in this 18 hour course.

This course combines theory and experiential components so that participants can learn how to support their clients as they delve deeper into their psyche and the therapeutic benefits of Sandplay Therapy.

This course fulfills 18 hours of the 100 hours of theory as required by the Canadian Association for Sandplay Therapy (CAST).

Location:

Nanaimo, British Columbia

Location to TBA

When: January 31, February 1, February 2, 2025.

Facilitators: Sylvia Simonyi-Elmer, RP, CAST/ISST.

COST: $575.00

Sylvia has taught, trained, and supervised professionals from around the world in the field of psychotherapy for more than 20 years. Currently, Sylvia runs a clinical psychotherapy practice with clientele ranging from childhood to adulthood with a variety of issues in Kingston, Ontario, Canada.

Sylvia became certified with ISST (International Association for Sandplay Therapy) in 1999. She is one of the founding members of CAST in 1993 and continues to be on its Board of Directors. She also served on the ISST Board of Directors as the National Representative for CAST and as their Honorary Secretary.

Sylvia has presented many workshops with Play Therapy International, ISST, and CAST. Prior to her private practice, Sylvia worked at a treatment center for the dually-diagnosed as a Psychometrist and Play/Sandplay Therapist.

Sylvia received her training in Psychometrics and Counselling at the University of Toronto, Canada. Sylvia is a member of ISST, CAST, and The Ontario Association for Mental Health Practitioners, and is a registered psychotherapist with the College of Registered Psychotherapists of Ontario.

In her spare time, she rides her horses at her small farm and she enjoys quilting, and being with family.

For more information and registration for this training go to Upcoming Workshops at: www.sandplaycanada.ca